The New York Herald (an eight page paper) has recently reduced its price from $12.00 to $10.00 per annum. In doing so it utters the following sound truths:

We have reduced the price of the Herald because equity to the public requires that when the prices of all other thi gs go down that of newspapers should decline in the same proportion. We have merely done a little in advance what all must soon do, and our correspondent does not seem to consider that the whole journalism of the city, as well as the whole public, have an interest identical with that which is represented by the present action of the Herald. It is inevitable that every branch of business must yield to the general situation which imposes a universal reduction of prices. Leave Chartotte, $3,00 p. m. do D. College, 4.56 do do Arrive at Statesville... 7.00 do Tickets on sale to Newton, Hickory, Morganton, Marion and Old Fort.

No fieight will be received by agents for shipment unless the name of consignee and destination is distinctly marked thereon.

J. J. GORMLEY, Superintendent. The Herald has taken this step after reflection; has taken it neither too soon nor too late; it will firmly adhere to it because it is not a freak of caprice, but the acceptance of a new business situation which all class and employmen's will be compelled to recognize, and if they do not float with the tide they will be stranded on the shore as the penalty of their obstinacy or want of fore-

The Raleigh News, acting on the the above principles, some time since reduced its Daily to $5.00 and Weekly to $1 per annum. Our suc cess has amply proven the wisdom of our course.

Stay at Home and Vote. We hear that a number of our young men design being at the Centennial on the day of election. This is wrong, gentlemen. Your friends and neighbors have urgent need of your votes on that day and you should stay at home and give them. This is but a slight sacrifice at your hands, and patriotism requires that it should be cheerfully maie. Your race, friends and neighbors have a right to depend on your support and assistance on the day of election and

Good-By J. P. H.

At the Republican county Convention, held at Metropolitan Hall, this city, on the 11th of September, J. P. Adams, of Cary township, was placed in nomination for Register of Deeds. He was defeated by the present incumbent, W. W. White. Upon the declination of Stewart Ellison, col., of the nomination as one of the candidates for the lower house of the General Assembly, the name of Mr. Adams was put on the ticket for that position. In his speech accepting the nomination Mr. Adams announced himself an out and out Republican of the Ben-Burler-Jim-Blaine stripe. In a few weeks afterwards this card, under the sign manual of Mr. Adams, was handed us for publication:

To the People of Wake County.
On the 11th day of September,
1876, I was nominated by the Republicans of Wake county for the House of Representatives of North Carolina; and since that time I have endeavored to give the matter my mo-t serious thought, with the following

I am satisfied that the interests of my people require a change in the administration of the government, and the system of persecution inaugurated by the Republican party is productive of much evil and distress. I believe our country to be prosperous the people must be at peace with one another, and the Republican party in striving to promote discorl is destroying our prosperity. My own people, among whom I was born and raised, and with whom, when I die I hope to be buried, need my assis ance, and desiring to promote their interest, which is my own, I feel it to be my duty to sever my coune tion with the Republican purty, and affiliate with the Democratic party of the country, which is seeking reform and reconciliation.

J. P. H. ADAMS.
Raleigh, Oct. 11th, 1876.

We were disposed to believe, after reading the above, that Mr. Adams was a sincere penitent at the altar of patriotism: that he had seen the error of his way and determined to amend. But. alas, his political penitence pans out like Holden's spiritual. Here is what J. P. H. says in yesterday morning's Constitution: RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 23, 1876.

To the Republicans of Wake County:

Fellow-Citizens: On Thursday, October 12, 1876, a card was published over my name, in which I announced myself withdrawn from the Republican party.

I now desire to say that the said card was published without reflection or deliberation on my part, and that I intend to work for the success of the Republican party, with which I have been identified for the past flye years, and in the coming election shall cast my vote for Hayes and Wheeler, and the entire Republican ticket.

Respectfully, J. P. H. ADAMS.

We have talked with several of J P. H's near neighbors and all agree to a man that a few dollars have again seduced him into paths of political turpitude. Good-by J. P. H., you didn't stay long enough for us to learn to love you. In common charity we hope that the grace of God will jet take a firm hold on your still sinful heart and lead you once more, and permanently, into the paths of virtue and restitude.

We regret to hear of the extreme illness of Jones Watson E-q., of Orange county. He is suffering with diptheria. W. H. Howerton, Esq., Secretary of State, has just returned from Centennial trip.

Rev. W. S. Lacy, of Moore county, is in the city visiting his relatives. Mr. C. E. Crabtree, for the past few months in the office of the collector of internal revenue, in this city, has accepted a position in Wahab's warehouse, Durham. Col. J. W. Whitford, of Newbern, is in the city.

We were glad to see on our streets yesterday Dr. J. W. Jones, of Panther Branch Township, this county. Dr. Jones has been an invalid for some time-past, and his improved appearance was a subject of congratulation to his many friends here.

J. D. Casey, Esq., of Company Shops was in the city yesterday. His mission was a sad one. He came inter the remains of an infant child n the Catholic cemetery.

Death of Silas Burns, Esq.,

This gentlemen, a former resident of this city, died Friday last at his residence at Lockville, Chatham county. Mr. Burns was a native of Massachusetts, and came to this city to live in the year 1834, carrying on the foundry business for a number of years. In 1862 Mr. Burns re. moved to Lockville, where he posessed valuable mining and mill property. The funeral services took place Saturday afternoon.

Weights and Measures.

The Governor on yesterday forwarded standard weights and measures to Jones, McDowell, Caldwell and Ashe counties. He will in a few days ship a partial set to Washington county From present indications the set of standard weights and measures of the metric system recently fur. nished this State by the government Speaking in Cedar Fork.

Yesterday the county candidates met in Cedar Fork Township. A very good crowd was in attendance. A G Jones, Democratic candidate for County Commissioner, led off in the discussion, making a very sensible speech. He was followed by Messrs Massey, Al'en, Turner and Jenks. The candidates for county treasurer, David Lewis, Democrat, and S. D. Harrison, Republican, announced themselves, as did Dunn and Nowell. candidates for sheriff. B. Y. Rogers, D-mocratic candidate for Register of Deeds, charged his Republican opponent, W. W. White, with having issued a marriage liceuse to a ne gro to marry a white woman. Mr. White did not deny the charge in his reply. Geo. H. Snow, our candidate for the Senate next took the stand and proceeded to lash "Honest" Bob Wyone in the most sporoved style.

He showed the great reduction that had been made in taxes on real estate since the installation into office of the present Democratic board; how impartially they had divided the educational fund, and with what prompiness all county orders had been paid. He repeated the charges heretofore spoken of against "Honest Bob," and requested him to answer them in his reply.

Mr. Wynne in his reply left all the charges unanswered, speaking all the time about his character for excessive honesty Our candidates for the lower house of the Legislature, Messrs Whitley, Page Olive and Jones, all made g oil and practical speeches. which told with good effect upon the white men. Their opponents, Messrs J. E. Biedsoe, Purnell and Todd, of course, carried the day with the negroes.

Enforce the Law on the Day of Elec-

Any person who shall, with intent to commit a fraud, register or vote at more than one box or more than one time, or who shall induce another to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be imprisoned not less than twelve months, or fined not less than one hundred por more than five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court; and any registrar of the vo'ers, or any clerk or copyist, who shall make any entry or copy with intent to commit a fraud shall be liable to the same penalty,

Any person who shall falsely and corruptly take the oath prescribed for voters shall be deemed to be guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined one thousand dollars and be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five y ears.

Penitentiary Recruits.

Yesterday quite a number of recruits were added to the penitentiary brigade. This is the roll call of the batch:

Sheriff J. C. Barnett, of Person county, brought Jas. A. Paul white, lareeny, five years; Edwards Brooks, colored, larceny, five years; George Ragland, colored, larceny, six years.

Deputy Sheriff M. C. Smith, of Pitt county, brought three swarthy Hayes and Settle men, viz: Richard Burney, larceny, two years; Brutus Walston. larceny, two years; Gray Bynum, forgery, two years.

Deputy Sheriff H. Preslar, of Union county, brought this lot: Charles Rossell, colored, larceny, two years; Rev. Charles Johnson, col'd. larceny, three years; John Wolfe, colored larceny, one year; Thadeus Billingsay, colored, larceny, two years.

The Legislature,

A large number of people in this city seem to be muddled as to the time of the meeting of Legislature. The law as it now stands requires this body to convene in this ci'y once in every two years, fixing the third Monday in November as the day of assembling. If the pending Constitutional Amendments are adopted, the day of meeting will be changed, as to future Legislatures, to the first Mouday in January. The pendency of these amendments does not affect the law at present in force, so the ensuing General Assembly meets, as heretofore, on the third Monday in next November, which will be the 20th. The proposed amendments to the Constitution, if adopted, do not go into effect until January 1st, 1877.

A special Washington dispatch in the New York World of Saturday informs us that the Republicans have formed a plan to import several thousand pegroes from Maryland and Virginia into this State, for the November election, in the hope of carrying it for Hayes and Wheeler. A portion of this nefarious design is said to be under the chanagement of a n . torious Washington negro by the name of Perry Carson, who was an active go-between of the old District ringsters. We hope our friends all block all of these Radical frauds.

Art at the Fair.

The art department at the late fair was not largely represented, yet showed some specimens of rare merit-Evident genius was displayed by the young man Dang rfield, of Fayetteville, only sixteen years old, in his scene of 'Evening on the Rhine." The points of excellence attained in this picture were very strong. His beautifully tinted sky, the placid stream, the fishing boat hauled ashore on the banks, the fishermen at their rest along shore, etc., were well executed and true to nature. "The Cross," another specimen of the talent of young Dangerfield, attracted much attention. Its surrounding, among which were seen the passion flower and the lovely violet, completed a tout ensemble of elegant taste. The "View on Crudrup's Pond," in Franklin county, executed by a young Raleigh artist, Frank Womble, elicited much praise. The rural landscape possessed many excellent artistic features and proyes the natural taste of the amatuer.

The display of shoes by our townsman, C. D. Heartt, is worthy of special mention without disparagement to others.

Mr. Clawson's exhit it in the art department was excellent of itself, and the taste showed in the arrangement was almost perfect. In fact, all the displays in this department were creditable.

The friends and admirers of the annual State exhibition cannot fail to appreciate the indefatigable aid given by Mr. H. T. Clawson in more than one department. Also the kind offices of Mr. H. A. London in the ladies' department. We mean no invidious distinction, but accord to all a share of merit in the various arrangements of heir industries, &c. on exhibition.

The articles which were on exhibtion and not delivered, but left at the main building, have been brought to the Secretary's office, where the owners can get them on the usual indentification.

Trinity College.

A great revival of religion is in progress at Trinity. Nearly all the students have been brought under its influence, and many from the vills and adjacent country. On Sunday night last Dr. Craven baptized six and received sixteen into the church. Two from Episcopal families stood up with the others, not to be received into the Methodist Church, for Dr. Craven would not have permitted that under such circumstances, but to say that they would join the Episcopal Church. There have been over forty conversions, and a general awakening of the whole church. There are meetings every night, and the usual College exercises during the day.

Invitation Accepted.

Yesterday Major A. M. Lewis received a letter from the President of the Tilden and Vance Club, of Fayetteville, stating that O. H Dockery had withdrawn his appointment to speak in that place, so the plan for the Major to meet and dress off the gentleman on that occasion has fallen through. The letter contained an invitation for the Major to visit Fayetteville and address the Tilden and Vance Club there n. xt Tuesday evening. We are glad to learn that Major Lewis has accepted the invitation. There is no more effective speaker in the State than Major Lewis, and the Fayetteville people may expect to have one of the best speeches they ever listened to

The Courts.

Yesterday was a dull day in the courts of Mayor Manly and Justice of the Peace Magnin. In the for mer sentence was passed upon a few unfortunate drunks whose names ve suppress by request.

In the court of Justice Magnin the only case was a peace warrant affair between two colored women, Busan Smith and Aurelia Dunn, which was dismissed with a reprimand to both parties.

Ransom in Wake.

We are requested to publish the following appointments for Hon. M. W. Ransom in this county:

Springfield, St. Mary's Township, Saturday, Nov. 4. Raleigh, Metropolitan Hall, Monday, Nov. 6th, 7:30 P. M.

We congratulate our people that they are again to have an opportunity of hearing this eloquent gentleman. We know that Raleigh will give him a rousing audience.

Last evening, just as the shades of night had enveloped the earth, Marcellus Alford, commonly called "Tusk," an Anglo-African wellknown in this community, meandered into the grocery store of Sorrel & Jackson, Exchange Place, and appro priated sans ceremony a shoulder of meat. He was quickly detec ed in the theft and handed over to the tender mercles of the police. An inves-

Babb, an Raleigh NEWS, Oct. 24, 1876.

A REVELATION ABOUT THE BONDS.

Gov. Holden in his card to the public, published in the Constitution of October 20th, 1876, says, in defense of himself for issuing the special tax

"And I will state further that the treasurer and myself would not decide to issue any bonds until we had gone before the entire Supreme Court in informal session, and ascertained from them, distinctly and clearly, what bonds were constitututional and what were not."

This is what Gov. Holden asserts in the hope of shifting from his shoulders on to the Supreme Court the responsibility of the issuance of the special tax bonds. Now, let us see what the Sur reme Court say on the subject.

Chief Justice Pearson was summoned before the Shipp Fraud Commission in 1871, (Nov. 14,) to give evidence in regard to the special tax bonds. The following question was propounded to his Honor:

Ouestion 2 Was there any consultation between the Justices or either of them, as to which bonds should be declared unconstitutional, or for any other purpose connected with the University

Judge Pearson submitted the following reply in writing:

' In reply to the second question, there ever was any consultation between the Justices and Gov. Holden or Treasurer Jenkins, as to which bonds should be declared unconstitutional, or any consultation connected with the University Rail-

This reply was duly sworn to and subscribed before the Hon. W. M. Shipp, chairman of the Commission, as will be seen by reference to the "Report of the Commission to investigate charges of Fraud and Corruption, under Act of Assembly, session 1871-'72, p. 488."

These two contradictory statements raise a direct issue of veracity between Chief Justice Pearson and Gov. Hol den. There is no escape from it.

This is a revelation of deep importance. It places the Republican party of North Carolina in a very serious predicament; and they may take either horn of the dilemma they

If Holden's statement be true, what do we find? The Supreme Court secretly conniving with the Executive of the State, and giving their opinious on the constitutionality of millions of bonds, conceived in sin and born in corruption. To appreciate the flagrant nature of this conduct, as alleged by Holden, we have but to bear in mind the fact. that the Supreme Court has no right to advise the Governor or Treasurer of the State as to the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any act of assembly. In the language of Justice Rodman, "the Constitution has wisely separated the judicial from the political departments of the government. The sole duty of the Judges is to decide controversies between parties concerning their rights under the law, and in the case of the Justices of the Supreme Court this duty is limited to such cases as come before that court on appeal." See opicion in reply to resolution of General Assembly as to tenure of office-64, N. C., p. 793. Of the same opinion were Justices Reade and Settle, they with Rodman J., constituting a majority of the Court. Justice Reade says, "At the last session of your honorable body, a like request was made for our opinion in regard to the Homestead, and we then declined to give our opinion, for reasons which we then stated. I had supposed our action then was decisive," &c .- 64. N. C. p. 791. It is true that in that matter Pearson, C. J., gave an opinion, in which Dick, J., concurred; but they did not profess to give their opinions as a Court, but only as individual Judges.

If Hon. Richmond M. Pearson told the truth in the matter, before the Fraud Commission, then does Gov. Holden, the calumpiator of Zebulon B. Vance, stand before the public convicted by the sworn testimony of the Republican Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, of WILFUL, DELIBERATE FALSEHOOD.

BY THE MOUTH OF TWO WIT-

NESSES." The statement of Rev. Thos. W. Babb settles the Holden-Bailey matter. It sustains Rev. Mr. Bailey fully. There is no longer room for doubt, even in the minds of the most incredulous.

If anybody thought Gov. Holden's denial out-weighed the uncorroborated tes imony of Rev. C. T. Bailey. there is no reason for harboring such a thought now. The word of two christian ministers is certainly to be taken as the truth, in preference to the word of a single layman. We must rest our belief on the testimony of two honorable, unspotted followers of Corist, rather than upon the unsustained assertions of a disgraced and degraded politician. Between W. W. Holden on the one hand, and Reverends C. T. Bailey and Thomas W. Babb on the other, no man of sane mind and memory can heeitate a moment. What then?

Ex-Gov. Holden, leader of the Republicans, editor of the Constitution. and calumniator of Zeb. B. Vancestands before the world to-day convicted of FALSEHOOD, by the unimpeached and unimpeachable testimony of two distinguished christian ministers.

What further?

It is now established-I. That the Kirk war was inaugu- I do, Indiana, West Virginia and Ohio.

rated by the Republicans to serve a political purpose II. That Gov. Holden basely allowed himself to be used as a tool by the managers of the National Republican party, to serve their wicked purposes. III. That John W. Stephens was murdered for political effect, by the Radicals. In the light of these disclosures the Republican party of North Carlina deserves to be promptly repudiated by every honorable or patriotic man within our borders.

Among the hotly contested counties of this State, Mecklenburg stands with the foremost. At the beginning of the campaign it was set down as doubtful. But the canvase has progressed far enough to enable us to judge of the probable result. Our ticket will win. The Democrats were never more thoroughly organized, and aroused. Under the splendid leadership of Moore, Shotwell and Ardrey, and the able, active Executive Committee, the party will achieve a decisive victory. Three hundred majority may be safely relied upon.

THE Salisbury fair is in progress. It is among the foremost fairs of the State. It is on a sound financial basis: always pays up its premiums, cash; and its displays are generally good. A. H. Boyden, Esq., itagenial President, and the efficient Secretary, Mr. Theo. F. Kluttz, have managed it with great ability.

THE right of challenge at the polls is clearly recognized by the Supreme Court. The whole matter was decided in the case of the State vs. Colvert, Judge Reade delivering the opinion of the Court. If you have the least suspicion that a man who offers to vote has not the right to do so, challenge him.

THE part Gov. Holden played with regard to the Londs of the Western Railroad, is shown up by our correspondent who signs himself "A Stockholder."

POLITICAL NOTES.

The United States troops continue to take up their line of march on South Carolina. The scenes at the places of their departure recall the days of the rebellion, though of course it takes an insignificant number of soldiers to subjugate Wade Hampton, compared with the numbers that were necessary to put down the armies of the Southern Confederacy. -N. Y. Sun.

When Hayes was in Congress he voted for a bill entitled "an act for the relief of certain contractors for the construction of vessels of war and similar machinery" This "relief" consisted in giving a gang of swindling contractors $300,000 for alleged extra work, they having already received $1,500,000 more than their contract price for inferior work. For every job of this kind Haves is shown by the records to have voted aye.

At the annual meeting of the Army of the Tennessee, in Washington, last Wed nesday, Grant was dumb as an oyster. It was different with him, however, one year ago at the reunion of this organization at Des Moines, Iowa, when aspiring to a third term, he did not hesitate to foment religious strife by a bungling speech on the common school system of which he apparently knows very little. Poor Grant! But he is served right.

Notwithstanding the unlawful massing of United States soldiers in South Carolina, and the evident intention of Ku-klux Chamberlain, in conjunction with the consprators at Washington to force some armed resistance on the part of the Democrats to the infamous proceedings, Gen. Hampton will carry out his engagements to speak and his friends will conduct the canvass as heretofore,unlike the Republicans, appealing to the reason and not the passions of voters.

The six electoral votes of Connecticut are not to be reckoned among the doubtful. The Republican organs outside claim the State on the ground that it has always thrown a Republican majority in Presidential years. At home, however, the leaders of both parties know perfectly well that there will be a majority of five thousand or more for Uncle SAM TILDEN. This confidence on the part of the Democrats is justified by a careful canvass of the State and a correct understanding of the present disposition of the silent vote. Count Connecticut for Reform this year.

Mr. Ike Young, says the Fayetteville Gazette, when he announced the keynote of this campaign to be to 'lie and stick to it," did not evolve the centemptible idea from his own brain, fitted as that seat of very mediocre intelligence would be for the concecting of such a scheme; he took his cue from his Northern masters, the administration and "bloody shirt" leaders. It is a significant fact that not one single election has so far taken place in any State, which has not furnished an epportunity for wholesale and unnecessary lying on the part of the Radical press and speakers. Not a single newspaper of that party has yet published the Democratic majority in Georgia at more than one-third of what it really is, while they have deliberately falsified the returns in Maine, Vermont, Colora-

BAYONET RULE.

Address of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

Absolute Submission Recommended.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 19, 1876. The Demogratic Executive Committee has issued the following address to the people of the State of South Carolina who desire hopest government without regard to politcal party or race:-

ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE. His Excellency the President of .he United States did on the 17th day of this month issue a proclamation whereby he commanded all persons engaged in unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within three days from this date, and hereafter abandon said combinations and submit them elves to the laws and constituted authorities of said State. This proclamation is based upon the statements made by Daniel H. Chamberlain, the Governor of this State, which statements are aimed exclusively against his political opponent, and are proven to be untrue by the testimony of every Judge in the State and every Trial Justice or other officer of the law from whom response has been obtained; every resident of the Sta e knows them to be untrue; every Republican of character or intelligence, or who is not in office in the State, have expressed horrow and disgust at the course which the Governor has pursued. We say this much for our vindication. Never has a people suffered more by dishonor of officers; never has such bold untruth been used for support of a movement which shakes the pillars upon which rests the constitutional temple of a mighty people. Our State is but a petty portion of the Union, but we call upon our sister States of the North to remember that the experiment now being made for the dom . nation of our election by the bayonet and by soldiers as the irresistible instrument of revolting local despot ism, if successful, will become the precedent before which the whole fabric of American liberty will fall, and which will be applied to oth r States just as soon as party exigencles require it. We make this declaration of our innocence, not in disrespect of the President of the United States, but as an act of justice to ourselves as American citizens and to put our case upon the record for an impartial trial before the great national tribunal. We bow in perfect submission to the proclamation of His Excellency the President, and exhort our fellow citizens, whom we represent in the present canvass, to yield full and entire obedience to every command in the said proclamation. We know that the clubs called rifle clubs are associations formed for home protection; that they are not combinations as charged by the Governor of this State; that there are but few that bave arms or amunition: that those which have been equipped were so done with the sanc-tion and sometimes with the aid of the Governor, and have been recog nized by him as useful and appropriate bodies, and not one of them has n accused of disorder. We know that their necessity was occasioned by the reckless distribution of arms and ammunition among the colored people by the State officials, and we further know that our white ci izens were, on the 16th day of this month, massacred at a peaceful political as semblage, when by agreement with C C. Bowen, Republican Chairman of Charleston coun y, and Sheriff of of said county, and first Presidential Elector for the State at large on the Republican ticket, who was present, they went without arms to meet il e colored race, the yoters of the so-calied Republican party in this State, who were likewise, by Mr. Bowen's agreement, bound to be also without arms; and we know that the politiciaus, who are the authors of all our evils, are teaching among the colored race the use of the rifle and the torch. We know that our homes are in peril and that our women and children are exposed to the horrors of ruthless butchery and barbarity, but, nevertheless, we advise and command, so far as our authority goes, that every such rifle club against which the misrepresentation of the Governor of the State are aimed be forthwith disbanded, and that the members thereof be held in the future only by those ties of humanity which bind all good men together; that the name of the club be abandoned and the officers cease to exercise thyir powers. This is said with the express declaration that hese clubs are not ass cisted with or supject to our political control; we repeat that we speak without disrespect to the President of the United States. He acts upon the statements made by the Governor of this State, but we say it that we may show our willingness to obey without committing an untruth against ourselves by seeming to acknowledge that of which we are not guilty.—

We are not engaged in unlawful and insurrectionary preceedings; we can not disperse because we are not gath ered together; we cannot retire peaceably to our abodes because we are in our homes in peace, dis urbed sione by the political agitations created by the Governor and his minions. But we resignedly and cheerfully, in the the performance of our duty. su-pend the exercise of our individual and private rights to prevent evil to to the whole people relying upon the universal sense of right and appealing to the Almighty to sus-We exhort our people to the con tinuance of submission to the authorities of the government, feeling as-

The Special Tax Bonds. To the Editor of the News:

The Legislature in 1868 appropriated $1,500 000 to extend the Western Railroad from Egypt, Chatham coun ty, to some point on the North Caro-lina Road with a further provision that if the above was not sufficient to complete said road, the President and Directory with the consent of the Governor, could issue first mortgage bonds not to exceed $900,000. Under these acis, the Governor appointed a majority of the Directory, and they, I think, elected the President. Juo. A. McDouald, and others were appointed by the Governor.

There was then issued by the Governor to this new appointee one mil-lion, three hundred and twenty thousand in State bonds. These the President took to New York, sold them and squandered the proceeds. Notwithstanding, the Governor must have known these facts, he reappointed these same men in 1869-'70. And to "cap the climax," this same Board and Governor, just as the Democratic Legislature in the fall of 1870 were endeavoring to push through an amendment to the char ter of this Road, which would rid the Company of such men, the same President and Directors, by the con-sent of the Governor, issued the $900,-000 first mortgage bonds, and hurried to New York and sold half of them before they were headed off by the above act. The Governor may have been deceived by his man in 1868; but he must have acted with his eyes open in 1869-70, as he must bave known that not one dollar of the proceeds of $1,770,000 State and mortgage bonds were ever used to extend the road, and that he knowingly aided in de-stroying the former interest of the State and private stockholders in said road. Why did he not send the State Treasurer to sell these bonds, and have he proceeds paid over to the company's Treasurer, both of whom were bonded officers? That was the way Reid, Bragg, Vance and othe s darbusiness. A ST CKHOLDER.

NOW FOR NOVEMBER.

A Stirring Address to the Ohio Democracy--How Victory May oc se-

COLUMBUS, Oct. 18 .- At the meeting of the Democratic Central Commatee of Ohio held here to-day, the following address to the people was

To the Democracy and Friends of Reform of Ohio: The elections held this month in Ohio, Indiana, and West Virginia demonstrate not only the possibility but the almost cer ainty of the elec-tion of Tilden and Hendricks. In 1863 and in 1872 the vote of West Virginia was cast for Grant. The Democratic majority of over 10,000 just given in that State makes it absolutecertain that she will vote for Ti den and H nuricks. In 1868 and in 1872 Indiana gave Grant majorities of 9,000 and 22 000 She has now elected a Democratic Governor by over 5 000 majority, and no reasonable don't can be entertained that her vote will be given for Tilden and Hendricks. In 1868 Onlo gave Grant over 41,000 majority, and in 1872 over 37,900. The Republica: now carry the State by but little over

6,000 plurality on the State ticket, and less than 4 000 on Congressmen on a vote of over 600,000. In view of these facts, the rational probabilities are that Tilden and Hendricks will be elected, even should Oniogo for Haves and Wheeler. But will she go for Hayes and Wheeler? Not if the Democracy and friends of reform do their duty. A gain of one per cent. on the vote of the late election, or, in other words, a change of two votes in each election precint, would give us the State. And it is quite possible to make that gain. We therefore appeal to you to put forth your best efforts for the cause. Let no one for a moment doubt the possibility of success. Go into the battle believing that victory is within your reach, and fight boldly and earnestly with the determination to achieve it You have every incentive that can actuate freemen to earnest exertion. Your business is depressed as it never before was depressed. You will get no relief without a change of rulers. You are burdened with taxation as no other people are burdened. You must displace the men who thus oppress you. The name of the Republic has become a synonym for ex-travagance. You must drive out the squanderers of your treasure and replace them by friends or economy. Corruption has permeated every department and brought free institutions into disgrace throughout the civilized world. You must first drive the corruptionists from power and replace them by honest men. It is vain to hope for reform from he Republican party. It has held power for nearly sixteen years, and ach succeeding year of is rule has developed an increase of official iniquity. If, with all its manifest sins upon its head, it can obtain another lease of power, corruption will be-come an established principle in the Government, and honest rule will be in danger of perpetual extinction. And if political power can be held by exciting race and sectional prejudices and by perpetuating the animosities that grew out of the war, Federal bayouets, sweeping arrests, and a general intimidation of the electors, white and black, who oppose the Republican par y, and if an Administration that not only sanctions these enormides, but aids in their perpetuation, can escape the condemnation of the people, it will soon be idle to tak of free elections or to hope for a nation united by common interests, equal rights, and fraternal feeting, as well as by the Constitution and the law. Fellow Citizens-You have a tick et worthy of your support. Tilden and Hendricks are men of deeds, and not men of promises. Their election would rescue the country from the abyss into which it is plunged, and a bright day of peace prosperity, and happiness would dawn upon the land.

THE TRUTH OF THE STEPHEN'S MURDER.

[From the News o Oct. be; 3, 1876] In the DAILY NEWS of the 30 h i., an article was published which urports to give the substance of a tatement made by me to certain genlemen a Cameron on the night of llowing facts:

On my way to the Baptist State onvention in Fayetteville, I was ineduced to ex-Gov. Holden. During A session of the Convention I was inited to dine with him and acceptethe invitation. I spent the afternoon with him, returning to the Botis Church after tea. Our intercourse was free and agreeable. He gave pe an account of his religious experiece and his political troubles. He wed to me that the plan of the mirk war" originated with the Exective Committee of the Republican prty at Washington, in the interest othe party: that he was opposed to j but was allowed no discretion in te matter; that it was decided by ast committee to inaugurate and rosecute the campaign as be did it; hat if he did not carry out the wishes f the party he and the State were to e crushed; and that if he was suces-fu. in the . xe ution of their plans e would probably receive a Cabinet ppointment, the Secretaryship of the aterior.

In reference to the death of Stehens I understood from him that he Republicans had much to do with int crime; that the prosecution of nose who were charged with it was scontinued because testimony was ther elicited or likely to be elicited hich would implicate or criminate rominent members of the Republiin party; that these fears were wakened in part by the discovery the coil from which the rope was at, which was found on the neck of te murdered man.

The statements of Gov. Holden Ift on me the clear and dis inet imgession that he had been the unviling instrument for the accomhisbment of the purposes of his party and that he did not merit the ofium vhich attached to his name al over the Sta'e.

During the session of the late Constitutional Convention I called on Governor Holden in his office at his own request. In a very pleasant interriew reference was made to the removal of political disabilities by Cogress, and also to the removal of hisown disabilities by the Convention then in session. So favorably was I impressed with statements male by him that I called on Rev. J. N. Stallings, of Duplin and a few other members, and requested them to use their influence to have Gov. Holden's disabilities removed.

I have made this statement in the interest of truth and not of any politted party; also as a matter of .justice to myself and all the persons mentioned in the News of the 30th. C T. BAILEY.

[From the News of October 24, 1876.] Editor of Raleigh News:

I was introduced to Gov. Holden on the cars between Raleigh and Fayetteville, on my way to the Baptist State Convention, (Nov. 1872,) he 28th. As a matter of justice to and had a very pleasant conversation and all parties concerned it with him. I was pleased with him ecomes necessary for me to state the and he seemed to be pleased with me. During the session of the Convention he invited me to dine with him at Judge Buxton's, which I did. We walked from the church to Judge Buxton's residence, took dinner and returned in a carriage to the church.

During most of this time the topic of conversation was the political record of Gov. Holden, of which he spoke freely, and I thought frankly. He confessed his regret for having allowed the interests of his party to sway his better judgment, and declared that he was forever done with politics. He said that the Kirk war was forced upon him by unwise and unsafe counsellors; that Kirk was not the man of his choice, but came so recommended that he could do nothing but appoint him to the command of the troops; that the whole thing was against his better judgment, and he regretted that he had acted as a partisan and not as a chris-

He said the murder of Stephens was for political effect, and his murderers were thought to be of his own party. He spoke of the rope found on the neck of the murdered man, and the finding of the coil from which it was cut as likely to elicit evidence unfavorable to parties who were supposed to be friends of Stephens.

THOS. W. BABB Gatesville, N. C., Oct. 18, '76.

[Rev. Thos. W. Babb, of Gates coupty, the author of the above card is one of the most brill ant and promising ministers among the Baptists of eastern North Carolina. He is a self-made man, of unblemished reputation and one of the most popular of all the ministers of the Chowan Association, by far the largest and most influential body of Baptists in the State. A few months ago he was called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church in Newbern, but was unable to accept. The Rev. Mr. Bailey knew nothing of the publication of this card, being absent from the city. Mr. Babb gave it to the public in the interest of justice and truth -ED.

financial article says: Only profound peace and a great revival of trade can prevent a financial catastrophe in Austria Even with these we doubt if the hopes of the Austrian finance minister can be realized; that by 1878 the end of the period of deficits will be reached. A dispatch from Belgrade to the Reuter agency, dated noon to-day says; It is reported that the Turks have laken Diupis and St. Mester. If this is true Gen Teherneyoff's army is in great danger.

The Iddian Campaign.

CHEYENNE, Oct. 24.—Gen. Crook being satisfied that Red Cloud's and Red Leaf's bands of Sioux were about to depart with a view of joining the hostiles in the north, they having refused to comply with the order to come into the agency and receive rations, and stuobornly remaining in camp on the Shadron creek, from whence, it is positively known they were in communication with the northern Indians, and re ceiving into their camp such as come in, he without awaiting the arrival of Gen. Merrit's troops determined upon disarming them and at dayight on the morning of the 23d ist. Gen. McKenzie with eight compapies of the 4th catvary, one battalion of which was commanded by Major Gordon, and another by Captain Manck, successfully surrounded these two bands, consisting of three hundred lodges and ponies, without fir-ing a shot, and marched them into the agency. After having been dis-armed and dismounted Spotted Tail, who has evinced unswerving loyalty to the whites, was made head chief and Red Cloud deposed. Spotted Tail and Little Wound have promised to furnish Gen. Crook with all the warriors he may need to co-operate with him in the coming campaign, which will be inaugurated at once. Gen. Crook feels that a great object has been attained in this last movement, and that we shall now know our enemies from our friends.

Raid of Negro Militia on Mount Pleas ant-Fearful Threatening of White Men and Women-An Appeal to Gen-eral Ruger for Protection-Effect of

CHARLESTON, B. C., Oct. 22, '76. The reign of terror in the low country continues, and the few whites who live there are in momentary terror of their lives. The massa rest Cainhoy has emboldened the negroes, and yesterday evening a band of about 400 of the militia, armed with State guns, and suppose I to be the same men who were enraged in the Cainhoy butchery, marched into the village of Mount Pleasant and attered loud threats of murdering the inhabitants and burning the town They rushed through the streets firing their muskets and shouting "Remember Cainhoy." There are about forty white citizens in the town and about

These collected together, bruild themselves as best they could, moved all the women and children into one house and made preparations to defend them. A steamer, lying at the wharf, was got ready to bring the women and children to the city, which is about two miles distance from Mount Pleasant. The white made by the negroes—remained on guard all night, and the Republicant, finding that they were determined to make a stand, did not carry out their intention. daylight, threatning to return soon and burn the village, kill the men, outrage the women. This statement is a literal relation of what was witnessed by a Herald reporter, and is not in the least exaggerated. Many of the negroes were those im plicated in the Cainhoy massacre.

The attack upon the town was caused by the report that a colored Democratic meeting was to be held there. Not one of the negroes implicated in the butchery of the whitee at Cainhoy has yet been arrested, al-though the Sheriff, who is their lead-

A meeting of the citizens of Mount Pleasant was held to-day, and a committee was appointed to go to Columbia, wait on General Ruger and ask for a company of federal troops to be stationed there. The negroes in this section outnumber the white over ten to one, and since the Cainhoy carnage have become perfectly outrageous. Unless the government sends troops many white men and women and colored Democrats will

A Norfolk Family Poisoned. Last Saturday a diabolical attempt was made to poison six human beings. Poison was mixed in with beings. Poison was mixed in with their breakfast. The following are the names of those poisoned: Mrs. Lizzie Berry, Walter Cherry, Stephen Cherry, Ola Batten, eight years old, Nina Batten, deceased, aged five years and seven months, and Frankie Batten, three years old. The coro-ner's jury subscribed to a verdict that from the evidence before them from the evidence before them Nina Batten came to her death from the effects of poison supposed to bave been administered by Jordan P.
